

DAILY COURIER

DAILY COURIER.
THURSDAY, OCTOBER 28, 1858.
Reading Matter on every page.

The Kentucky University at Harrodsburg.
We have repeatedly made reference to the satisfactory progress of the work of endowment of the institution, which is being prosecuted with remarkable zeal and energy by John B. Bowman.—It gratifies us to learn that the present prospects of the university are as flattering as they could be desired. The funds now amount to $175,000, of which $50,000 have been paid in during the past eighteen months. Building, endowments,

[illegible]

The devotion of Mr. Bowman to this noble enterprise is one of the most noteworthy circumstances of the day. Unselfishly and gratuitously he has devoted his life, energies, and property to the endowment of the university, and he is determined that it shall be the pride and glory of Kentucky.

NEW ESTABLISHMENT.—We are gratified in being enabled to welcome back our friend Murton (of the late firm of Evans & Murton) to the business circles of the city. Mr. M. is yet quite a young man, but has had great experience in his department of trade, is polite, popular, and possessed of ample capital. His new establishment is located on Main street, three doors west of Fifth. Although comparatively small, our citizens will find in it the exemplification of the old proverb—the smallest caskets hold the choicest gems.

Mr. Murton has selected his stock with great care and his usual taste. It embraces wall and window papers, window shades, picture cords and tassels, looking glasses and plates, French plate glass, portrait and picture frames, all of which are sold at the manufacturers' lowest prices. Persons refurnishing and refitting their homes should give Mr. Murton a call.

INDICATIONS OF PROSPERITY.—We are gratified to learn from Mr. Deering, who is energetically engaged in preparing his review of the trade and manufactures of Louisville, that the indications of our city's prosperity are most flattering. He has recently been visiting the various work-shops, and finds them all full of hands and as busy as possible. All of our manufacturers are thriving, their business is constantly increasing, and there is a better and more hopeful spirit prevailing among all classes of workmen than for years before.

Mr. Deering is laboring to have his book furnish a complete view of the capabilities and resources of Louisville. He has some eight thousand copies subscribed for, but a larger edition should be demanded. Let our citizens give this gentleman

PROBABLE SETTLEMENT OF THE BELL DIFFICULTY.—It affords us great satisfaction to announce that, in all probability, there has been a complete settlement of the late unhappy difficulties, growing out of the capture of Horace Bell, on Saturday last, by unauthorized Louisville officers. The deliberation with respect to his detention is now ation which proceeded to Brandenburg on the ferry boat, had an interview with the citizens of that place, and returned home yesterday morning. They found that the people of Brandenburg were laboring under no undue excitement, and acted in the matter with perfect coolness. The understanding was that Bell would be tried in Brandenburg, and reasonable bail taken. Messrs. Cannon and Austin, and two other gentlemen of New Al-

CONCERT IN LEXINGTON.—The new Melodeon Hall, which has just been completed, and is now one of the finest audience chambers in the country, will be opened for the first time Friday evening. On that occasion Prof. Colliere, of this city, will give a grand concert, assisted by his daughter M^{lle} Bertha Schiedler, Mr. Dolfinger, and Messrs.

A. and E. Zoller. This is an unusual fine array of musical talent. Prof. Colliere possesses a wonderfully rich, varied, and powerful voice, and his assistants are all finely gifted. The programme for this concert embraces some of the very choicest gems to be found in the repertoires of most eminent musical composers.

Norman Glazier came on board the steamer Rocket, at Stepiensport, and paid his passage to Madison, where he said his mother resided. He had been down the river on a flat boat, but was compelled to return in consequence of ill health. While the boat was at Portland, Glazier was seized with a fit, or spasm. The officers of the boat immediately had him placed in his room and cared for. Yesterday morning he was seen to fall or jump overboard at the mouth of the canal, and was drowned.

THE APPLE BUTTER MEN IN TOWN.—Our readers will remember John Hunt and his famous apple butter, which was sought after with avidity by the whole city. His successors, Messrs. Conghlin and Graham, have established themselves in Wall street, and also have a stall in the market. They manufacture the most superior apple butter and mince meat, and have an article of domestic sweet cider, which cannot be equalled.

 Buyers will recollect that Messrs S. G. Henry & Co., sell this morning (Thursday) at 10 o'clock, on four months' credit, at the warehouse of Mr. Ebenezer Barnard, some 250 bbls. N. O. sugar, ranging from fair to strictly prime. This is one of the largest and best stocks of sugar ever offered at auction in this city. Buyers would do well to attend. The sugar is arranged for sale and can be examined this morning.

POLICE COURT.—This court was almost entirely deserted yesterday, with not even a solitary case of drunkenness, misdemeanor, or even a peace warrant to present. Truly, have we fallen upon good times, or else the terrors of the watch, and the circuit court have overcome the wickedness of the people, or tanglefoot and blackguard whiskey and rife brandy have lost their influence.

[E] We would call the attention of our readers to the sale of piano cases, stands, tools, etc., advertised by J. Grauman, for Friday morning at 10 o'clock, on Sixth street, between Market and Jefferson. Mechanics and others are invited to CHOICE JEWELRY, WATCHES, ETC.—M. C. Ramsey, the fashionable jeweller and watch maker, on Main street, just below Fourth, is in receipt of a full assortment of every article in his line, which he offers very cheap. Call in.

 Druggists will bear in mind that Mr. C. C.

Spencer closes out this morning Messrs Sharp & Gwathmey's stock of drugs, medicines and fixtures at their old stand, corner of Jefferson and Eighth streets, by order of assignee. See advertisement.

 Mr. L. T. Sedgwick, of the "Red Jacket Saloon," corner of Third and Market streets, is in receipt of 106 dozen quails, fresh and fat, from the prairies of the west. He can supply all orders.

☞ A patriarch says: "Annex a young woman who will raise you up and not push you down."—This principle is applicable in more cases than one, and may be applied to Hurley's quick yeast; that it will raise your bread and not your temper.

day the 26th. For more than half a century he had been a member of the Presbyterian church.

 The Illinois Central railroad, which suspended in 1857, has resumed payment in full, having, during the past year, paid off five millions of its indebtedness.

 See notice of Victorina lost.

JEFFERSON CRIMINAL COURT.

HON. P. B. MUIR, JUDGE.
WEDNESDAY, OCT. 27, 1893.
Dismissed.—The mandamus sued out by Stahl, in reference to the city interpreter's position now occupied by Mr. Stahl, who has been the city council, and which position was held by the petitioner, was denied. The petition of the plaintiff vs. Jno. D. Pope, to have enforcement of the city ordinance requiring the monthly payment of one month's salary, which plaintiff alleged was not being paid, was also denied. The court also held that the plaintiff was not entitled to be reinstated from said office, and that the plaintiff was not entitled to be reinstated from said office. The court also held that the plaintiff was not entitled to be reinstated from said office. The court also held that the plaintiff was not entitled to be reinstated from said office.

[illegible]

This was the day for the grand contest of mile heats, for the Jockey Club Purse of $1,000, and created a greater excitement in the sport circle than any previous race of the meeting. It was the fact that Mr. John M. Clay's horse Waterio (who had previously met: Jack Gamble and her him at Lexington, having again to meet his competitor. At the sound of the horn the mare made their appearance on the course and bet opened at two to one on Waterio; while so who considered it a more even race than the others, offered three to one; the winner was named. At the appointed time, all being in readiness, the "tap" was given, and away they

[illegible]

The third mile was a repetition of the second. Waterloo and Jenny running together all the way round; but it was pretty evident that "Black" was done for, being full eighty yards behind, and the gap becoming wider every stride. Time of the 3 miles, 5:52. Now came the fourth, and Waterloo succeeded in leaving the rest at the quarter post, and led round to the E. stretch, where Jenn again made play and took the twal, coming home at a steady pace, but immediately after passing the distance post, Jenn stumbled, nearly throwing her rider, and so left Waterloo to canter in, winning the first heat in 7:52. Jack Gamble in the back stretch.

The third race was a repetition of the second, with the winners running together all the way round; but it was pretty evident that "Red Jack" was done for, being full eighty yards behind the leader. The favorite, "Red Jack," and the gap between wider every time the race was run. The favorite, "Red Jack," and the gap between wider every time the race was run. The favorite, "Red Jack," and the gap between wider every time the race was run.

It is, it has exhibited so much spirit, maintained such a gentlemanly and courteous bearing under the accumulated disasters of the week, that they have won greatly upon the admiration and esteem of their brother turfmen of Tennessee. They are worthy representatives of a gallant State, and we were gratified to learn that so far from being discouraged by the result of the present meeting, they propose to return at the ensuing spring meeting and again contest the turf with us. Let them come, we say, and changing slightly the words of a sentiment popular with us, let them say, "I will not defer by one of them; yesterday at dinner, I said, 'I will not defer by one of them.'"

SUMMARY.
Fifth Day—Friday, October 29.—Jockey Club $1,000; four mile heats; three entries.
John M. Gray named a 2. Waterloo 4 years, by Versailles; dam Topsy, by Ontario 100 lbs.
John M. Swiggett named a 2. Jack Gamble, 4 y., by Taggart, 2 y. 113 lbs.
Capt. T. G. Moore named a 2. Jenny Rose, 4 y., by Ontario; dam Belle, by Frank. 97 lbs.
Time—7.55.

Mr. Blair and Judge Douglas.
St. Louis, Oct. 25, 1895

James H. Stanger, Esq.

Dear Sir:—I have received your note putting certain interrogatories to me in reference to conversation held by Judge Douglas and myself at his house last winter. It has always been my principle with me, to hold sacred every private conversation between any gentleman and myself, and this will forbid my saying anything in answer to the questions you have asked. Although Judge Douglas, by his conduct, to me, and by the unscrupulous attacks of his partisans, has forfeited all claim on my forbearance, yet I do not consent that because others have failed to conform to the proprieties of life it furnishes an excuse to me to follow their example.

And what has happened, and, however, it is and proper to myself to say, that the letter was was written by me to Mr. B. Gratz Brown, of Missouri Democrat, and which has been the basis of the assaults made on me by Mr. Douglas of Kansas for violating an alleged confidence, or promise in that connection with the senator Julius D. Jones himself. In fact, I deemed it to be the single object of the interview to which I was invited to mitigate, through me, the hostility of the radical Democratic press of St. Louis towards him. I wrote for this purpose, believing it to be his desire, and I had no agency whatever

I have said that I was invited to the interview by the newspaper. I am not sure that I was invited. I thought an interview with him upon political subjects. The invitation and the message came through the Hon. Schuyler Colfax, of Indiana, and I wrote him to that effect. I was to write a magazine matter. I take the occasion to say to neither the message sent me, nor anything that never occurred between Judge Douglas and myself, prepared me for hearing of his calling me a seceder over the defeat of the emancipation of Missouri, and my own defeat by the pro-slavery Lecompton-Buchanan Democracy of Missouri.

Yours, FRANK P. BLAIR, Jr.

All Sorts of Paraphra.
The population of Debuque, Iowa, has increased six hundred and seventy-eight since year. The same is true with reference to all mushroom towns upon the Upper Mississippi.

After the message sent me, nor anything I could do to prevent Judge Douglas and his self-prepared mob from coming to the cheering cheerers over the defeat of the emancipation of Missouri, and my own defeat by the pro-slavery mob, much less the mob of the pro-slavery mob, Yone, FRANK P. BLAIR, Jr.

All Sorts of Paragraphs.

The population of DeWitt County, Iowa, has increased six hundred and seventy-eight years the same. The same is true with the reference to all mushroom towns upon the Upper Mississippi.

The Indianapolis Journal states that improvements to the value of a million dollars are made in that city the present season.

Discovery of Iron Ore—An immense deposit of iron ore has been discovered in the mountains of Missouri. The tract embraces two thousand acres, and owned by Napoleon A. Johnson, who entered the land at government price some few years ago. The ore shows itself in immense quantities. It is overlaid with earth, from iron bodies.

THE Indianapolis Journal states that improvements to the value of a million dollars have been made in that city the present season.

New Discovery or Iron Ore.—An immense deposit of hematite iron ore has been discovered about thirty miles from the base of Mount St. Helens, in Missouri. The tract embraces two thousand acres, and owned by Napoleon Arden, who entered the land at government price many years ago. The ore shows itself in immense bodies. It is overlaid with earth, from one to three feet deep, and boulders of ore from the size of a small gravel to twenty pounds in weight, and close, solid, fine hematite ore.

Perhaps man are the most imitative of all the world of nature. Only one spoke like man, but hundreds of thousands are daily talking like donkeys.

It is vain to steth your finger in the water and, pulling it out, say, "The water is warm." It is vain to suppose that, however large the water you occupy, the world will miss you when you die.

✚ Alexander II has promised the Emperor of France and Queen Victoria to visit France in England, and hopes to perform his promise next spring.

19 Alexander II has promised the Emperor of the French and Queen Victoria to visit France in England, and hopes to perform his promise in 1870.
 20 Richard Barry, a member of the New York board of education, has been sentenced to the penitentiary for four months, for assaulting John Wolfe, the keeper of a house of ill-fame.
 21 "Smooth Quarters" were turned to political account in Jefferson county, Pennsylvania, during the late Presidential campaign. The opposition circulated a story in one township, that the editor of the local paper Buchanan had signed a bill making smooth quarters worth only twenty cents. The story was so true, that the editor, after trying and failing to get the story straight, it proved sufficient to defeat the Democratic county ticket.
 22 The Winchester Chronicle has changed hands. Dr. Jno. M. Rife is now publisher, in place of James M. Ogden editor.
 23 A fine suit spring. The shoes discovered in Mississippi railroad, near Memphis, Tenn.

☞ The Sons of Malta had a grand process in Covington, Friday night. They have become an institution in Lexington.

